

NVLSP

NATIONAL VETERANS LEGAL SERVICES PROGRAM

Korean War Veterans Memorial Cleaning

Saturday, May 17, 2025

Park Ranger James Pierce welcomed our group and shared his record of service to our nation and his continued dedication to serve through the National Park Service.

NVLSP
NATIONAL VETERANS LEGAL SERVICES PROGRAM

Against the backdrop of an overcast sky at the Korean War Memorial and the distinguished Field of Service, volunteers from NVLSP and White & Case gathered to honor our veterans and wash the Memorial on May 17, 2025, Armed Forces Day.

NVLSP
NATIONAL VETERANS LEGAL SERVICES PROGRAM

NVLSP Executive Director Paul Wright takes a moment to discuss the day's activities with (left to right) Abigail Mills, NVLSP Appellate Attorney Emily Mills and NVLSP Director of HR & Operations Rafael Resto-Olivo.

NVLSP
NATIONAL VETERANS LEGAL SERVICES PROGRAM

For NVLSP Executive Director Paul Wright, a veteran whose father fought in the Korean War, this event was especially meaningful.

Also pictured here in the picture are NVLSP volunteers Mary Ellen Ruff and Rosemary Deutsch.

NVLSP
NATIONAL VETERANS LEGAL SERVICES PROGRAM

The granite wall bearing the powerful message in silver: Freedom is Not Free and the iconic stainless steel statues walking towards the American flag underscored the solemnity of the Korean War Memorial.

NVLSP
NATIONAL VETERANS LEGAL SERVICES PROGRAM

For the second year in a row, White & Case staff joined NVLSP in paying homage to our veterans and washing the Korean War Memorial.

Left to right: White & Case Associate Philip Russell, Associate Director of Engagement & Development Nichole Bartlett and Associate Otto Nunez-Montelongo gather in front of the Field of Service.

NVLSP
NATIONAL VETERANS LEGAL SERVICES PROGRAM

NVLSP Appellate
Attorney Emily Mills and daughter Abigail tackled
the mural wall of more than 2400 images of Korean War service members.

NVLSP
NATIONAL VETERANS LEGAL SERVICES PROGRAM

NVLSP's Senior Appellate Attorney Emily Woodward Deutsch and daughters, Katherine and Rosemary, meticulously labored over the Wall of Remembrance.

NVLSP
NATIONAL VETERANS LEGAL SERVICES PROGRAM

Cleaning the Wall of Remembrance, that immortalizes more than 36,000 American servicemembers and over 7,000 members of the Korean Augmentation to the U.S. Army, are NVLSP's Development Research Assistant Kimberley Davis and Jennifer Roos, wife of NVLSP Director of HR & Operations Rafael Resto-Olivo.

NVLSP
NATIONAL VETERANS LEGAL SERVICES PROGRAM

In the foreground, NVLSP Appellate Attorney Alec Ghezzi teams up with Stacy Tromble, NVLSP Director of CAVC Litigation and her husband, Jim Bartoszczyk, to clean the etched mural based on actual photographs of unidentified American soldiers, sailors, airmen and Marines.

NVLSP
NATIONAL VETERANS LEGAL SERVICES PROGRAM

NVLSP and White & Case were honored to receive the National Park Service Challenge Coin in recognition of our volunteer efforts.

NVLSP
NATIONAL VETERANS LEGAL SERVICES PROGRAM

NVLSP and White & Case volunteers posed for a photo with Park Ranger Pierce. From left to right: Katherine Deutsch, Emily Woodward Deutsch, Abigail Mills, Emily Mills, Otto Nuñez-Montelongo, Phillip Russell, Kimberley Davis, Alec Ghezzi, Jennifer Roos, Rafael Resto-Olivo, Elizabeth Schneider, Patty Briotta, Stacy Tromble, Paul Wright, Nichole Bartlett, Jim Bartoszczyk, Ranger Pierce, and Rosemary Deutsch.

